LONDON EXAMINATIONS BOARD

We can confirm that we have been working with London Examinations Board, 137A High Street, Waltham Cross, Hertfordshire, EN8 7AP, for over four (4) years. They have and continue to provide us with students participating in both our Undergraduate and MBA programmes.

During this period of our working relationship we are very satisfied with their approach to meeting our objectives and ensuring that suitably qualified candidates are enrolled onto our programmes.

As part of our collaborative arrangements, they are responsible for the delivery of our programmes through their e-learning platform. We are very satisfied with the e-learning platform that is meeting our requirements in terms of academic content, quality and student interactions. Our faculty have full access to the platform to enable to continuously monitor students' work and their academic records.

If you require further information, please do not hesitate to let me know.
