Collaboration between University of Gloucestershire and London Examinations Board

This is to confirm that the University of Gloucestershire and London Examinations Board executed a collaboration agreement dated 21 November 2021 for the University's MBA Business Administration (Masters Stage- 60 credits).

Subject to all other University of Gloucestershire entry requirements, it is confirmed that the University will accept applications from students to the MBA Business Administration if within the last five years they have:

- Passed a London Examinations Board credit rated diploma at level 11 with 120 credits and on the Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework;
- passed a London Examinations Board EQF level 7 diploma with 120 credits in business/management or similar; or
- passed a regulated qualification at EQF level 7 with 120 credits in business/management or similar or any other programme accepted by the University at their absolute discretion from time to time.

The information contained in this letter can be shared with eligible and prospective students and appointed centres of London Examinations Board.

Yours faithfully

Professor Dr Cathia Jenainati
